The conference

After Barcelona in 2016 and Halifax in 2018, we have the pleasure to organize the 18th Chemometrics in Analytical Chemistry Conference that will be held on the 29 August -2 of September, 2022 in Roma (Italy). CAC is the largest international conference dedicated to all aspects of chemometrics and data analysis research in analytical chemistry. The conference historically attracts a diverse group of researchers from around the world with more than 300 participants.

Consequently, we believe that our conference is the perfect place to showcase your organization, its products and services.

The main venue for the scientific part of the conference will be the main lecture hall (Aula La Ginestra) of the Chemistry Department of the University of Rome La Sapienza that can accommodate more than 300 people. But the conference will also bring leading international researchers to the most popular places of a mythical and legendary City

Exhibition spaces are available throughout the conference and will be located contiguous to the conference room (where talk will take place) in the same area where coffee break and poster exhibition will take place
